

Please join the SABA GB, AALAM, MBLA, MLGBA and MAHA for our 2nd Annual Joint Bar Diversity Event:

Moving Diversity Forward in the Face of Economic Challenges...A candid discussion about the DIVERSE experiences of DIVERSE attorneys in Greater Boston's Legal Community

Panelists will include:

Aloke Chakravarty, Assistant U.S. Attorney, Criminal Division, Anti-Terrorism and National Security Unit

Geoffrey Why, General Counsel, Dept. of Telecommunications & Cable

Robert Cooper, Vice President /Senior Counsel, OneUnited Bank

Carlos Perez-Albuerne, Partner, Choate, Hall & Stewart

Bernadette Harrigan, Assistant Vice President & Counsel, Mass Mutual
Financial Group

After the success of our first joint panel event last year, "Let's Get Real About Diversity," please join us for a follow-up conversation. This year, our distinguished panelists will engage in a lively and much-needed discussion on the importance of diversity in our profession, especially in light of the current economic challenges we are facing, and the relevance of diversity, if any, in the age of Obama.

The panel discussion will be followed by a networking reception. Meet members of the affinity bar organizations and others interested in diversity issues, and build a network by sharing common experiences.

Please join us on Tuesday, May 19, 2009 Registration: 6:00 p.m.; Panel Discussion: 6:30 p.m.; Networking Reception: 7:30 p.m.

Nutter, McClennen & Fish LLP
World Trade Center West
155 Seaport Blvd.
Boston, MA 02210

For questions or to RSVP, please contact Maya L. Sethi at msethi@nutter.com, or by phone at 617-439-2847 by May 15, 2009.

This event is co-sponsored by the following organizations: Asian American Lawyers Association of Massachusetts (AALAM), the Massachusetts Association of Hispanic Attorneys (MAHA), the Massachusetts Black Lawyers Association (MBLA), the Massachusetts Lesbian and Gay Bar Association (MLGBA) and the South Asian Bar Association of Greater Boston (SABAGB).