

Wanted: Mock Trial Judges for 4th Annual Crimson Invitational

My name is Jean-Paul Jacquet, and I, along with my co-Chair Aaron Rosenberg, am serving as Director of the Fourth Annual Crimson Classic, to take place on Saturday, November 7th and Sunday, November 8th. We are currently in the process of securing judges for our upcoming invitational, and would greatly appreciate your help. On behalf of the Harvard Mock Trial Association, we would like to request your aid in making this year's tournament a success.

We had a large number of competing teams last year; this year, we expect the tournament to be of similarly large size, necessitating a rather large judging pool. We ask that you might keep us in mind as you plan out your fall schedule, and we hope that you might be able to join us for another great tournament! Please contact us at crimsonclassic@gmail.com if you feel that you might be interested in judging this fall. As we come closer to the tournament date we will be contacting interested persons so that we may compile a list of judges that will be able to attend. If you are receiving this email for the second (or third, possibly fourth) time, we do apologize. We're just trying to reach as many people as we can.

Have a great summer and thank you!

Jean-Paul Jacquet and Aaron Rosenberg

Directors, Crimson Classic Mock Trial Invitational
Harvard Mock Trial Association
crimsonclassic@gmail.com

--

Harvard Mock Trial
www.harvardmocktrial.org