

OFFICERS - Effective September 1, 2011

PRESIDENT | Lisa C. Goodheart

Automatic Accession to Office

Lisa is a partner at Sugarman, Rogers, Barshak & Cohen, P.C., where she focuses on environmental, real estate and business disputes. She is a former Chair of the Massachusetts Judicial Nominating Commission, and at the BBA has served as Vice President and Treasurer, as a member of the Council, the Executive Committee, the Finance Committee and the Nominating Committee, and as Co-Chair of the Environmental Law Section and chair of the Environmental Litigation Committee. She is a past President of New England Women in Real Estate, and has been active in the ABA as a member of the Standing Committee on Environmental Law. Lisa is also a supporter of the performing arts, and has served on the boards of several dance companies.

Lisa is a graduate of Williams College and the University of Pennsylvania Law School.

PRESIDENT-ELECT | James D. Smeallie

Elected to One-Year Term

J.D. is a partner at Holland & Knight, LLP. His practice is concentrated in business litigation and the representation of educational institutions. J.D. has served on the firm's Directors Committee and as the Executive Partner of the Boston office. He currently chairs the Education Team at Holland & Knight. At the BBA, he has served as Vice President and Secretary, as Chair of the Diversity Committee, and as a member of the Diversity Leadership Task Force. He has also served as a Commissioner on the ABA's Commission on Racial and Ethnic Diversity in the Profession. J.D. is a past Vice President of the Boards of Trustees at Shore County Day School and the Pingree School.

J.D. is a graduate of Yale College and the University of Virginia Law School.

VICE PRESIDENT | Paul T. Dacier

Elected to One-Year Term

Paul is Executive Vice President and General Counsel of EMC Corporation. He is responsible for EMC's worldwide legal group which consists of more than 90 attorneys. Paul has served on the BBA Council since 2007. In 2008, he co-chaired the BBA's Strategic Planning Committee. He has served as Treasurer of the BBA and is a member of the Executive Committee. Under Governor Mitt Romney, Paul was a commissioner of the Massachusetts Judicial Nominating Commission and the presiding officer in the proceedings to remove, for cause, the then chairperson of the Massachusetts Turnpike Authority. Paul was instrumental in establishing the Business Litigation Session in Suffolk County in the 1990s, and is a past-chair and remains on the board of the New England Legal Foundation. He is a trustee of the Boston Bar Foundation and the Social Law Library.

Paul graduated from Marquette University and its law school.

TREASURER | Julia Huston

Elected to One-Year Term

Julia is a partner at Foley Hoag LLP, where she chairs the firm's Trademark, Copyright & Unfair Competition Practice Group. Julia's practice includes litigation, counseling and strategy in the areas of trademarks, copyrights, trade secrets, Internet commerce, domain name piracy, false advertising, unfair competition, and patents. Julia is currently Secretary of the BBA and a member of the Executive Committee and Council. In the past, Julia has served as Chair of the Amicus Committee, Co-Chair of the Litigation and Delivery of Legal Services Sections, and Co-Chair of the Intellectual Property Litigation Committee. A longtime supporter of civil legal services for the poor, Julia is the immediate Past President of Greater Boston Legal Services, and is a Past Chair of the Equal Justice Coalition and a Past President of the Women's Bar Association of Massachusetts.

Julia is a graduate of Boston University (BA, BS, JD) and Harvard University (Ed.M.).

SECRETARY | Carol A. Starkey

Elected to One-Year Term

Carol is a partner at Conn Kavanaugh Rosenthal Peisch & Ford, LLP. Her practice is concentrated in the areas of white-collar criminal defense, regulatory law, and business and employment litigation. Prior to joining Conn Kavanaugh, Carol was Chief of the Economic Crimes Division of the Massachusetts Attorney General's Office, where her work concentrated on white-collar crime and public corruption. Carol serves on the Joint Bar Committee for Judicial Appointments and is a member of the BBA's Criminal Law Section Steering Committee. In the past, Carol has served as a BBA Council member, Co-Chair of the Criminal Law Section, Co-Chair of the Diversity & Inclusion Group Mentoring Program, and a Diversity Committee member. Carol has also served on the Criminal Justice Section Council for the Massachusetts Bar Association.

Carol is a graduate of the University of Colorado at Boulder and Suffolk University Law School.

Boston Bar
ASSOCIATION

2011 Election Results

For Officers and Members of the Council of the Boston Bar Association

NEW COUNCIL MEMBERS - Effective September 1, 2011

Katharine E. Bachman

Elected to Three-Year Term

Kathy is a partner at WilmerHale LLP, where she is Vice Chair of the Real Estate Practice Group. She represents clients in a broad range of real estate development, leasing, and financial transactions, with a particular focus upon life science and technology companies, and projects involving public/private partnerships and affordable housing. She has served as Co-Chair of the BBA Real Estate Section, is a member of the American College of Real Estate Lawyers, and has been active in a number of professional and civic organizations, including service as President of New England Women in Real Estate, a Trustee of Dickinson College, and membership on the Board of Directors of Greater Boston Legal Services and other non-profit organizations.

Kathy is a graduate of Dickinson College and New York University School of Law, where she was a Root-Tilden Scholar.

Navjeet K. Bal

Elected to Three-Year Term

Navjeet is the Commissioner of Revenue for the Commonwealth of Massachusetts, a post she was appointed to in February 2008 by Governor Patrick. As the Commissioner, Navjeet oversees the Department of Revenue's Tax Administration, Child Support Enforcement, and Division of Local Services departments. She is also a Board member of the Federation of Tax Administrators. Prior to her appointment, Navjeet practiced at Mintz Levin for 17 years in its public finance department, where she co-founded Mintz's Domestic Violence Project. Navjeet is currently a Board member of the Legal Advocacy and Resource Center, the Lawyer's Committee for Civil Rights, and was appointed in February 2010 by Chief Justice Marshall to the Access to Justice Commission. Navjeet is a member of the South Asian Bar Association of Greater Boston Advisory Board, and was a 2008 recipient of the National South Asian Bar Association's Cornerstone Award.

Navjeet graduated from Williams College and Northeastern University School of Law.

Susan M. Finegan

Elected to Three-Year Term

Sue is a Litigation Partner at Mintz Levin. She currently serves as the Chair of the Pro Bono Committee and serves as the firm's full-time Pro Bono Partner. From 2004-2007, Sue was the Legal Director of the Victim Rights Law Center, overseeing civil legal services to sexual assault survivors. Sue has served as Co-Chair of the BBA's Delivery of Legal Services Section and is on the BBA's Task Force on Expanding the Civil Right to Counsel. Sue is a member of the Judicial Nominating Commission, the Access to Justice Commission, the Commission on Judicial Conduct, and is an ex officio member of the SJC's Standing Committee on Pro Bono Legal Services. She is a former board member of the Women's Bar Foundation.

A former law clerk to the late Honorable Andrew A. Caffrey and Honorable Francis P. O'Connor, Sue is a graduate of Dartmouth College and Boston College Law School.

Anthony A. Froio

Appointed to Three-Year Term

Anthony is the Regional Managing Partner of the Boston office at Robins, Kaplan, Miller & Ciresi L.L.P. He represents clients in complex litigation related to intellectual property and trademark infringement, and employment and bankruptcy litigation, as well as general commercial disputes. Anthony has served as Co-Chair of the BBA's Litigation Section and serves as Treasurer of the Holy Cross Varsity Club in Worcester, Vice Chair of the Board of Governors of Tufts Medical Center, and Chair of the Personnel Board for the town of Shrewsbury, Massachusetts. He also recently served on the Massachusetts Judicial Nominating Commission. He is active with several professional associations including the Massachusetts Bar Association, the Massachusetts Academy of Trial Lawyers, the Boston Chapter of the Federal Bar Association, and the Boston Patent Law Association.

Anthony is a graduate of the College of Holy Cross (cum laude – phi beta kappa) and Suffolk University Law School.

Gerald P. Hendrick

Appointed to Three-Year Term

Gerald (Jed) is the partner-in-charge of Edwards Angell Palmer & Dodge's Boston office. Jed served as a Co-Chair of the Business Law Department and is a member of the firm's Operating Committee. He acts as general counsel to numerous public and private companies in diverse industries and also advises boards of directors regarding governance and fiduciary matters. Previously, Jed was Senior VP, General Counsel for Dennison Manufacturing Company, and Senior VP-Administration, General Counsel for H.P. Hood. In both positions, he was responsible for legal and key non-legal executive functions. Jed participates actively in local and regional projects, including serving as director of the Greater Boston Chamber of Commerce and as a volunteer tutor in Boston public schools. He is also a frequent author and panelist for MCLE.

A graduate of the University of Fribourg (Switzerland) and Providence College, Jed earned his law degree from Suffolk University Law School.

Diana K. Lloyd

Elected to Three-Year Term

Diana is a partner at Choate, Hall & Stewart LLP and Co-Chair of the firm's Government Enforcement & Compliance Group. She is a member of the firm's Operating Committee and Associates Committee, has co-chaired the firm's Hiring Committee, and has been a member of its Diversity Committee. From 1997-2001, Diana served as an Assistant US Attorney in Boston, and in 1996, served as a Special ADA in the Suffolk County DA's Office. Diana is a member of the BBA's Criminal Law Steering Committee and formerly served as Co-Chair of the Criminal Law Section. She is a former member of the Board of Trustees of the Women's Bar Foundation. She also served as a law clerk to the Honorable Amalya L. Kearsy in the Second Circuit.

Diana received her JD and MA from New York University, and was Editor-in-Chief of the New York University Law Review. She received her BA, summa cum laude, from St. Lawrence University.

Camille A. Nelson

Elected to Three-Year Term

Camille is Dean and Professor of Law at Suffolk University Law School. Prior to joining Suffolk, Camille served as Professor of Law at Hofstra Law School, a member of the faculty of Saint Louis University School of Law, and as a visiting professor at Washington University in Saint Louis. Prior to pursuing her scholarly career, Camille clerked for Justice Frank Iacobucci of the Supreme Court of Canada before working as an associate at McCarthy Tétrault in Toronto, the largest law firm in Canada. She is a member of the American Law Institute and is widely recognized for her writings and lectures, which have focused on the intersection of critical race theory and cultural studies with particular focus on criminal law and procedure, health law, and comparative law.

Camille is an alumna of the University of Toronto, University of Ottawa Faculty of Law, and Columbia Law School.

Colin Owyang

Elected to Three-Year Term

Colin Owyang is Senior Vice President and US General Counsel at National Grid. He previously served as Vice President of Global Records Management and Assistant General Counsel for Commercial Litigation; Director and Counsel of Merger Integration and Strategy Implementation; and Assistant to the CEO. Prior to joining National Grid, Colin was an Assistant US Attorney in Boston, a Special Assistant US Attorney in Washington, DC, a Trial Attorney in the Environmental Crimes Section of the US Department of Justice, an associate at Foley Hoag and a judicial clerk for three federal judges in Boston and Detroit, MI. Colin serves on the Boards of the New England Legal Foundation and the Middlesex Partnerships for Youth and is a member of the External Diversity Committee of the Middlesex District Attorney's Office. Colin is also on the legal committees of the Edison Electric Institute and the American Gas Association, where he serves on the Leadership Council.

Colin is a graduate of Yale College, Yale University and the University of Michigan Law School.

Boston Bar
ASSOCIATION

2011 Election Results

For Officers and Members of the Council Of the Boston Bar Association

Mark D. Smith

Elected to Three-Year Term

Mark is a partner at Laredo & Smith, LLP where he focuses on white collar criminal defense and government investigations. He previously served as Chair of the BBA's Education Committee and as Co-Chair of the BBA's Criminal Law Section. Prior to entering private practice, Mark served for eleven years as an Assistant Attorney General in the Criminal Bureau of the Massachusetts Attorney General's Office, including as Chief of the Public Integrity Division and Deputy Chief of the Criminal Bureau. Mark began his legal career in New York City, where he worked as a public defender for four years. He also clerked for the New York State Supreme Court.

Mark graduated from St. Lawrence University and received his JD from Suffolk University Law School.

Those persons continuing on the Council are: Jonathan M. Albano, Lisa G. Arrowood, Jonathan Chiel, Donald R. Frederico, Lee T. Gesmer, Renee Inomata, Robert W. Iuliano, Elizabeth A. Lunt, Christina Ely Miller, Maureen Mulligan, Martin F. Murphy, Michelle N. O'Brien, Lon F. Povich, Michael D. Ricciuti, Jennifer M. Rivera-Ulwick, Ingrid C. Schroffner, William F. Sinnott, Richard A. Toomey, Jr. and Gina Y. Walcott. In addition, John D. Donovan, Jr. will be serving as an ex-officio member of the Council in his capacity as Boston Bar Foundation President.