

Brandeis University Spotlight on International Law

Seeking Justice in the Wake of Mayhem

What Is the Impact of Convictions Fifteen Years after the Rwanda Atrocities?

HASSAN BUBACAR JALLOW

Chief Prosecutor, International Criminal Tribunal for Rwanda

Respondent: William Leahy

Chief Counsel, Massachusetts Committee for Public Counsel Services

Moderator: Leigh Swigart

Director, Programs in International Justice and Society,
Brandeis University

DECEMBER 1, 2009

Old State House 8:00 to 8:55 a.m.
206 Washington Street, Boston Light breakfast from 7:45 a.m.
(State Street "T" stop)

Free and open to the public. RSVP requested due to limited seating.
Call 781-736-4210.

SPONSORED BY

Planethood Foundation
Brandeis University International
Center for Ethics, Justice, and Public Life
Boston Bar Association
Brandeis University Office of Communications

